Saturday 10th November

Morningside Parish Church 10am–1pm

Scottish Charity Number: SC034396

On Remembrance Sunday weekend this year we remember the centenary of the end of the First World War. After such a terrible conflict, thoughts were of peace and how to make a better world out of the ashes of war. Our Festival asks the question, What kind of World...?

10am–1pm

at Morningside Parish Church, Braid Road/Cluny Gardens

Coffee Morning – in support of Poppyscotland (all morning)

Art and Poetry Display from South Morningside Primary School, Buckstone Primary School, and the Royal Blind School (all morning)

Morningside and World War One – historical display by Morningside Heritage Association (all morning)

Music from George Watson's College (10.30am–11am)

What kind of World...? A panel discussion with young adults from the Church of Scotland National Youth Assembly (11.30am)

2pm–2.15pm

at Morningside Cemetery, Morningside Drive

Community Remembrance Service at the Cross of Sacrifice

4.30pm–5.45pm

at Greenbank Parish Church, Braidburn Terrace

Two of Scotland's finest musicians, violinist and fiddler Alastair Savage and cellist Tom Rathbone, present a concert inspired by remembering the world wars. Expect catchy folk tunes, serene classical, and vibrant new folk music written by Alastair. Free admission, with a retiring collection shared between the musicians and Poppyscotland.

Alastair Savage
